Interest rates

The Banque centrale du Luxembourg (BCL) informs that, based on preliminary data, the main interest rates applied by Luxembourg's credit institutions to euro area households and non-financial corporations (NFCs) for their loans and deposit operations have on average evolved as follows in August 2017.

Representative interest rates on new contracts¹ – loans and deposits – concluded with households

The variable² interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has decreased by 2 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 1.63% in August 2017. The volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 73 million euros on a monthly basis to reach 147 million euros during the last reference period. On a yearly basis, the interest rate has decreased by 4 basis points and the volume of newly granted loans has decreased by 8 million euros.

The fixed³ interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has remained broadly unchanged on a monthly basis to reach 1.86% during August 2017 from 1.87% in July 2017. The volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 88 million euros on a monthly basis and has consequently amounted to 239 million euros during the last

1 New contracts refer to any new agreement concluded between the household or the non-financial corporation and the reporting agent. New contracts include all financial contracts which mention for the first time the interest rate pertaining to the deposit or credit and all renegotiations of existing deposits or credits.

2 Variable interest rate or rate with an initial fixation period inferior or equal to 1 year.

3 Fixed interest rate weighted by the amounts of contracts for all mortgage loans granted, whatever the initial rate fixation period (above 1 year). This series has been published by the BCL only since February 2009 for methodological reasons linked to the identification of reporting agents.

reference period. On a yearly basis, this interest rate has increased by 25 basis points and the volume of newly granted loans has increased by 21 million euros.
