Interest rates

The Banque centrale du Luxembourg (BCL) informs that, based on preliminary data, the main interest rates applied by Luxembourg's credit institutions to euro area households and non-financial corporations (NFCs) for their loan and deposit operations have on average evolved as follows in August 2020.

Representative interest rates on new contracts¹ – loans and deposits – concluded with households

The variable² interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has decreased by 2 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 1.35% in August 2020 and the volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 87 million euros to reach 207 million euros. On a yearly basis, the interest rate has decreased by 10 basis points whereas the volume of newly granted loans has increased by 36 million euros.

The fixed³ interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has decreased by 2 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 1.32% in August 2020 and the volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 51 million euros to reach 449 million euros. On a yearly basis, this interest rate has decreased by 16 basis points whereas the volume of newly granted loans has increased by 145 million euros.

1 New contracts refer to any new agreement concluded between the household or the non-financial corporation and the reporting agent. New contracts include all financial contracts which mention for the first time the interest rate pertaining to the deposit or credit and all renegotiations of existing deposits or credits.

2 Variable interest rate or rate with an initial fixation period inferior or equal to 1 year.

3 Fixed interest rate weighted by the amounts of contracts for all mortgage loans granted, whatever the initial rate fixation period (above 1 year). This series has been published by the BCL since February 2009 only for methodological reasons linked to the identification of reporting agents.

The interest rate on consumer loans that have an initial fixation period above 1 year and below or equal to 5 years has decreased by 10 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 2% in August 2020 whereas the volume of newly granted loans has decreased by 15 million euros to reach 32 million euros. On a yearly basis, the interest rate has decreased by 52 basis points whereas the volume of new lending has increased by 6 million euros.

The interest rate on households' fixed-term deposits that have an initial maturity below or equal to 1 year has remained unchanged at 4 basis points compared to July 2020. On a yearly basis, this rate has decreased by 7 basis points.
