Interest rates

The Banque centrale du Luxembourg (BCL) informs that, based on preliminary data, the main interest rates applied by Luxembourg's credit institutions to euro area households and non-financial corporations (NFCs) for their loan and deposit operations have on average evolved as follows in May 2021.

Representative interest rates on new contracts¹ – loans and deposits – concluded with households

The variable² interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has decreased by 2 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 1.33% in May 2021 and the volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 17 million euros to reach 263 million euros. On a yearly basis, the interest rate has decreased by 5 basis points whereas the volume of newly granted loans has increased by 72 million euros.

The fixed³ interest rate on mortgage loans granted to households has increased by 2 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 1.33% in May 2021 while the volume of these newly granted loans has decreased by 41 million euros to reach 476 million euros. On a yearly basis, this interest rate did not evolve whereas the volume of newly granted loans has increased by 40 million euros.

1 New contracts refer to any new agreement concluded between the household or the non-financial corporation and the reporting agent. New contracts include all financial contracts which mention for the first time the interest rate pertaining to the deposit or credit and all renegotiations of existing deposits or credits.

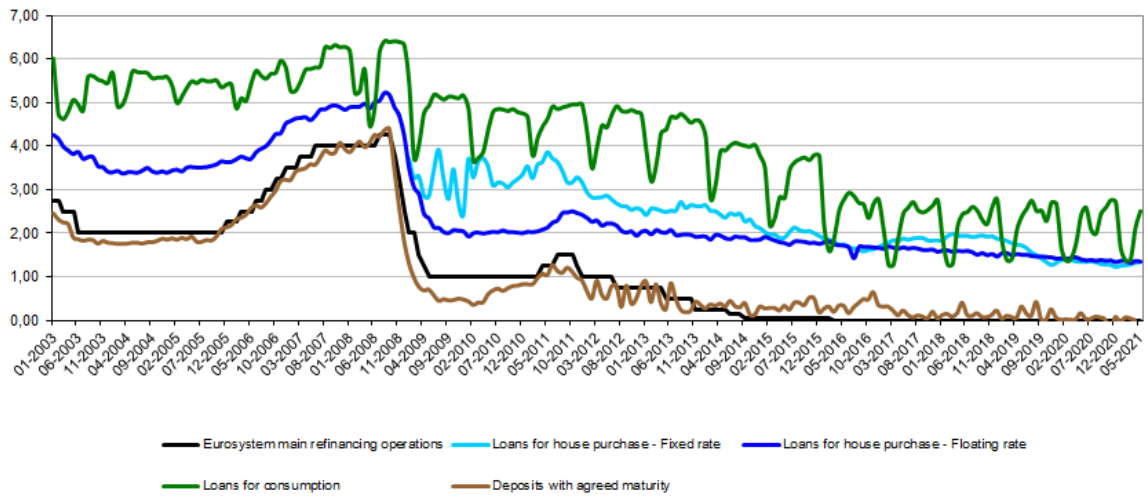

2 Variable interest rate or rate with an initial fixation period inferior or equal to 1 year.

3 Fixed interest rate weighted by the amounts of contracts for all mortgage loans granted, whatever the initial rate fixation period (above 1 year). This series has been published by the BCL since February 2009 only for methodological reasons linked to the identification of reporting agents.

The interest rate on consumer loans that have an initial fixation period above 1 year and below or equal to 5 years has increased by 38 basis points on a monthly basis to reach 2.52% in May 2021 whereas the volume of newly granted loans has decreased by 5 million euros to reach 27 million euros. On a yearly basis, the interest rate has increased by 8 basis points whereas the volume of new lending has increased by 5 million euros.

The interest rate on households' fixed-term deposits that have an initial maturity below or equal to 1 year has reached 1 basis points in May 2021 from 5 basis points during the previous reference period. On a yearly basis, this rate has decreased by 2 basis points.
