

Ref.: ST.22-0811

Luxembourg, 27th October 2022

To the attention of the reporting agents

Subject: Collection of granular credit and credit risk data sets (AnaCredit)

Madam, Sir,

We wish to inform you the Central Bank of Luxembourg (BCL) has just updated the AnaCredit part of its website. The update includes the following elements:

- An update of the list of reporting agents, the list of SDMX schemas valid for each reference date, the AnaCredit Instruction, the comparison methodology IBSI-IMIR and the comparison methodology FINREP
- The publication of the Validation Rules 1.0.7

The new validation rules of version 1.0.7 will become applicable from the 31st January 2023 onwards. However, the priorities present are already to be used from the reference date of September 2022 (included) onwards.

For further information on the AnaCredit collection, please contact directly the banks section (email: reporting.anacredit@bcl.lu).

Please accept, Madam, Sir, the assurance of our highest consideration.
