

Ref.: C2.09-1076
Circular letter

Luxembourg, 28 December 2009

To all credit institutions
To all software providers
To all reporting channels

In case of discrepancies between the French and the English text, the French text shall prevail

Concerns: Statistical reporting 2010, update of reporting instructions

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We should like to refer to the above-mentioned subject in order to inform you that we have updated the pages of the Internet site Banque centrale du Luxembourg (www.bcl.lu) that contain the instructions for the statistical reporting of credit institutions in order to include the updates containing the various comments and suggestions received following the last update.

Therefore, in addition to the mails sent out in order to inform you of these changes, we should like to invite you to regularly visit our Internet site in order to be informed of the most recent updates.

Finally, we should like to thank all the actors involved in the production of statistics for their kind support provided by them in order to improve the various statistical reports.

Sincerely yours,

BANQUE CENTRALE DU LUXEMBOURG

Volkert BEHR

Section statistiques bancaires et monétaires

Roland NOCKELS

Département Statistiques